WSCC Careers

Senior Business Analyst, Yellowknife

This is a non-traditional occupation

N 18/05 NT

The Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission's (WSCC) vision is to eliminate workplace diseases and injuries. We promote workplace health and safety while providing no fault insurance to employers and care for injured workers. We uphold the values of respect, engagement, integrity, openness, cultural safety, excellence and stewardship.

The Senior Business Analyst (SBA) is responsible for conducting business analysis and overseeing project development and maintenance activities of information management systems. The incumbent is responsible for design, development, testing and implementation of new and upgraded systems for the WSCC. The SBA works with internal IS staff to ensure that applications and services are customer focused; accessible and reliable; innovative; value driven; and provide continuous improvement.

This position is based in Yellowknife and reports to the Manager, Information Systems. The SBA supports the Mission, Vision and Values of the WSCC by ensuring that services to outside stakeholders are not compromised by the inability of staff (internal stakeholders) to understand and use their system and application resources efficiently and effectively. The Information Systems/Information Management /Information Technology (IS/IM/IT) infrastructure is considered a major WSCC asset supported by the efficient implementation of strategic business/information systems. The evaluation and analysis of information needs and change requirements are key factors in the successful implementation of IS projects.

We require completion of a University degree, preferably in Computer Science or a major in Management Information Systems, with a minimum of four years of Information Systems project management, and systems or business analysis experience.

Salary ranges from $49.02 to $58.53 per hour (approximately $95,589 to $114,133.50 per year) plus a Northern Allowance of $1.77 per hour ($3,450 per year).

A satisfactory criminal records check is required for this position.
