

Case Manager, Iqaluit

N 18/47 NU

The Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission's (WSCC) vision is to eliminate workplace diseases and injuries. We promote workplace health and safety while providing no fault insurance to employers and care for injured workers. We uphold the values of respect, engagement, integrity, openness, cultural safety, excellence and stewardship.

The Case Manager reports to the Supervisor, Case Management, Stakeholder Services in Iqaluit and is responsible for ongoing entitlement, adjudication decisions, and vocational rehabilitation for all complex and long-term claims. To expedite an early and safe return to work this position interacts with injured workers, workers' representatives, health professionals, employers, families and other relevant parties.

The Case Manager assesses the impact of the injury on the client's life, develops, and facilitates a vocational plan to assist the worker to return to gainful employment. This often requires the management of professional rehabilitation service providers. This position also recommends referrals to the Pensions Specialists when they determine that the worker has a permanent disability.

We are looking for a flexible and innovative individual who has good research, communication, conflict resolution, problem solving, analytical, evaluative and investigative skills. The successful applicant must have strong interpersonal and leadership skills that facilitate active participation as a contributing member of a cross-functional team.

We require a Bachelor degree in Social Sciences with 4 years case management experience, working with clients in a related environment. We consider equivalent combinations of education and experience on a case-by-case basis.

The salary ranges from $46.85 to $55.93 hourly (approx. $91,357.50 to $109,063.50 annually), plus an annual Northern Allowance of $18,533.

A satisfactory criminal records check is required for this position.

Closing Date: October 19, 2018 @ 5 PM (MST)
